CONSTITUTION

— OF THE —

Fairbury Union Agricultural Board,

ADOPTED JAN, 26, 1876.

WHEREAS—The farmers and mechanics of this portion of the State, deem this point the best opening for a great Union Fair, and having a desire to elevate their profession, and excite in each other a spirit of emulation and rivalry, we, therefore, do hereby form ourselves into an Agricultural and Mechanical Association, with its central point at Fairbury, Illinois, with the following Constitution:

ART. 1. This Association shall be known as the FAIRBURY UNION AGRICULTURAL BOARD.

ART. 2. The capital stock of this Association shall be six thousand dollars, divided into shares of twenty-five dollars each, assignable and transferable upon the stock books of the Society.

ART. 3. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote, and one only, and each voter shall vote in person.

ART. 4. Certificates of stock may be transferred, but no person shall be entitled to hold to succeed five hundred dollars ($500,) in stock.

Rules and Regulations.

The Board will hold its First Annual Fair at the Fair Grounds in Fairbury, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th, 1876.

The following rules and regulations have been adopted by the Board, and will be strictly adhered to.

1. The entry books will be open on Tuesday, at the Secretary's office, on the grounds, and it is desirable that all entries should be made on that day. No entry will be made after 12 o'clock m., on the second day, for which the article, or animal is to compete for premiums as per premium list. Particular attention is called to this, as it is impossible to give satisfaction in any other way. Those who make the entries, shall be on the grounds and remain during the Fair, unless excused by the President.

2. Stalls for horses and cattle shall be paid for, as follows: Box stalls, fifty cents, and open stalls, twenty-five cents, per day; and if animals occupying stalls are not exhibited in the ring at the time appointed for their class and lot to exhibit and compete for premiums, the owner or exhibitor will be charged five dollars per day, for each stall so occupied.

3. All sweepstake premiums will be awarded in the forenoon on Friday, the last day of the Fair.

4. No person exhibitor, the judges and the officers of the Board, shall be admitted into the ring while the animals are being exhibited for premiums.

5. No communication will be allowed between owners and judges, concerning articles and stock on exhibition. A violation of this rule forfeits the premium. Special instructions will be given in some cases, and in all, if the awarding committee desire it.

6. A single animal may also be exhibited as one of a herd, and in sweepstakes, but shall not otherwise be entered in more than one lot.

7. All animals or articles on exhibition, will be subject to the control of the Superintendent to the departments to which they belong, under the general direction of the President.

8. All breeding stock must be satisfactorily shown as having bred.

9. One person shall not be entitled to two premiums, if he shows several articles or animals in the same class without competition. One premium only shall be awarded in such cases, and that the first or second, according to the quality of the animal or article shown.

10. Exhibitors, on application for entry, will be furnished a card by the Secretary, which must be attached to articles during the exhibition, and also to all animals.

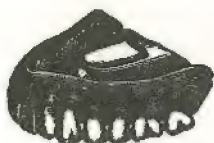

11. Forage and grain will be furnished on the Fair Grounds at cost. Straw furnished free.

12. Ten dollars reward will be given for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any pickpocket, plying his vocation at this Fair.

13. Judges must not express an opinion, one to the other, until after a vote is taken, and if they can not agree, they shall inform the Superintendent, and additional judges shall be chosen.

14. All exhibitors shall be required to keep their stalls open from 10 a. m., until 6 p. m., or during exhibition hours.

15. No exhibitor, in any class, shall act upon awarding committees; therefore, any person appointed on awarding committees, who may desire to compete for premiums therein, are requested promptly to notify the Superintendent.

16. Exhibitors of animals must place their names and address, and name of the particular breed to which the animal belongs, and age of same, in a conspicuous place, in their stalls or pens. It is the duty of the Superintendent of the department to which the animal belongs, to see that this rule is enforced.

17. The Superintendents of departments, shall be chairman of their respective committees, but shall not be entitled to vote.

18. Neither the Secretary, nor any other officer of the Society, shall disclose to competitors, or any other person, what entries have been made, nor shall any other person, than the Secretary and other officers of our Society, be allowed to know what entries have been made before the exhibition.

19. In case the ribbon shall be torn off by the owner of stock or article, or the award otherwise treated in a contemptuous manner, the premium on the animal or article shall be forfeited.

20. The diploma of the Board shall be the highest honorary award, and shall be given only as a first premium; and any person preferring the diploma to the premium offered in the list, can receive it by notifying the Secretary of such preference.

41. Two classes shall be established in cattle, horses, and hogs, viz: Thoroughbreds and grades.

42. The committee on sweepstakes shall be separate and different from all other awarding committees.

43. All ribbons shall be removed from animals or stock before the same shall be exhibited in sweepstakes.

44. No premium shall be paid until fifteen days after the close of each Annual Fair, and in case the receipts of any fair are not enough to pay all premiums, the same shall be paid pro rata by the Treasurer. All premiums shall be paid in cash, on the Fair Grounds when called for.

45. A committee shall be appointed to examine the pedigree of all animals or stock entered as thoroughbreds.

46. This embraces those animals whose pedigrees are traceable in full to the American or British Stud Book, or American Turf Register, American or English Herd Book, and Short Horned Record, and American Berkshire Swine Record. The committee are expected to exercise great care in the examination of pedigrees, and are expressly instructed to exclude from their awards in this lot, impure blood and unworthy individual animals. Pedigrees to be entered when the entry is made.

47. All premiums not called for in thirty days after the last day of the Fair, will be considered as donated to the Board.

48. Any person transferring his or her admission ticket, shall forfeit all right to it, and said ticket shall be considered void, in the hands of any person holding the same. None will be allowed to return, only those who have a season ticket.

that of the bona fide owner, the person making such entry, will not be allowed a premium, should one be reported by the committee.

51. Should any one enter a vegetable production, or manufactured or other article in any other name than that of the producer, maker, inventor or improver, no premium shall be paid, though one may be awarded by the committee.

52. Awarding committees shall consist of five persons, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum, and in the absence of a quorum, the Superintendent of any class shall have the right to appoint other persons to fill said vacancies.

53. Awarding committees shall attach blue ribbons to the articles or animals entitled to first premiums, and red ribbons to those entitled to second premiums.

54. THE PRESS.—The Superintendent of this department will provide editors and reporters with the necessary permits to the grounds, and will assist them as far as practicable, to such information, regarding the Fair, as may be of interest to the public. But no reporter, unless known as such, to some member of the Board, or provided with a certificate from the publisher of the paper he claims to represent, shall be entitled to free admission to the grounds.

55. REFRESHMENTS.—Ample arrangements will be made for victualling all who may attend. Hotels and restaurants have agreed to charge only usual rates during the Fair.

56. Delegates from other agricultural organizations are cordially invited to attend this Fair, and are respectfully requested to report themselves to the Reception committee, so that they may receive suitable attention.

Owing to hard times, prices of goods in my line have been reduced to lowest possible figures, and to make sure of this, you can be convinced by calling at my store and get prices. Many goods that I would keep, I do not now have in stock, for two reasons: First, because any one can buy very much cheaper for cash, at these times and by sending for goods to order, can give my customers the benefit of the extra discount. Secondly, they can have their choice of the latest novelties, as the styles are constantly changing, besides it would be impossible to have goods on hand to suit every purchaser and in that way, goods might lay on hands for a long time, and to be paid for before a cent's worth was sold. Therefore any one can reasonably see that goods kept on hand must be sold at a fair profit, at least, to make a living, while goods to order can be obtained for very little expense.

VIRGIN & BROWN,

Importers of

FRENCH HORSES.

We have in the last two years, imported over thirty head. Have now for sale a few No. 1 horses from 3 to 6 years old. We also have the blooded Stallion, "Bismark," who has never failed to take premiums wherever shown in the different states, from the great St. Louis, to different county fairs.

With this horse, we keep "FARMERS' INTEREST," the largest horse of his age in Illinois, having taken several First Premiums last season at different state fairs when 3 years old, and having done well in the past year, we propose showing him at the principal fairs this fall;—weighing 2,000 pounds or more, we having repeatedly refused $4,000 for this horse. We assure the farmers these horses will be kept here for their benefit.
